

CONNECTICUT PUBLIC INTEREST LAW JOURNAL

Articles

Equality does not mean Conformity: Reevaluating the use of Segregated Schools to Create a Culturally Appropriate Education for African American Children

Danielle N. Boaz

Bridging the Gap: Why the Stevens-Leahy Amendment to the Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative May Reveal a Renewed Focus on Civil Liberties in National Security Legislation

Stuart Gilgannon

A History of America's First Jim Crow Law School Library and Staff

Ernesto Longa

Notes & Comments

School Bullying in Connecticut: Can the Statehouse and the Courthouse Fix the Schoolhouse? An Analysis of Connecticut's Anti-Bullying Statute

Laurie Bloom

Monkey-Business: Connecticut's Six Billion Dollar Gorilla and the Insufficiency of the Emergence of the ADA as Justification for the Elimination of Second Injury Funds

Zachary D. Schurin