Proof of Language Proficiency Requirements for international applicants to the Executive Masters of Law (LLM) Program in Seoul, Korea in the Dual Degree Program with HUGS Master’s program of global legal practice and advanced study of law are the following:

- Applicants with a TOEFL IBT® score of 90, a TOEFL IPT score of 577, a PTE score of 65, an IELTS score of 7.0, or a Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE) of C1 meet the admission requirement without the need to further demonstrate their proficiency.
- Applicants with a TOEFL IBT® score of 80–89, a TOEFL IPT score of 550–576, a PTE score of 60–64, an IELTS score of 6.5, or a CAE of B1 should further substantiate proficiency in English through additional evidence of English language skills, including, but not limited to, a strong writing sample in conjunction with an interview with an admissions representative, conducted in-person, by phone, or online (using Skype or similar service).
- Applicants with a TOEFL IBT® score of less than 80, a TOEFL IPT score of less than 550, a PTE of less than 60, or an IELTS score of less than 6.0 may be considered for conditional admission based on an interview with a designated officer from UConn School of Law.

The applicant may be exempt from submitting a TOEFL IBT®, PTE, IELTS, or CAE score if the applicant:

- Has successfully been a non-degree student at UConn School of Law and seeks advanced standing in an LLM or Executive LLM program;
- Has completed TOEIC with scores of no less than 140 in Speaking, 150 in Writing, 385 in Reading and 400 in Listening and completed an interview with a UConn Law admissions officer;
- Earned a law degree from a recognized institution of higher learning at which the primary language of instruction was English;
- Earned a prior academic degree from an accredited institution of higher learning in the United States;
- Has resided and worked speaking English in an English-speaking country for not less than two years prior to the date of application;
- Speaks English as her or his native language; or
- Demonstrates substantial partial fulfillment of one of the above and completes a directed writing assessment provided by the Admissions Committee.

Please note: Any international applicant claiming exemption from the TOEFL IBT®/PTE/IELTS/CAE requirement must submit a written request with his or her application for admission that includes an explanation of the applicant’s proficiency in English along with original documentation supporting the requested exemption on the basis of one or more of the above categories. Exemptions are not automatic and require the approval of the Admissions Committee.

In all instances, regardless of TOEFL IBT®/PTE/IELTS/CAE score or requested exemption, the Admissions Committee reserves the right to deny an application and to require a writing sample and an online, phone, or in-person interview as a condition for consideration of any application.
